

English

Kesztyűgyár Community Centre The Kesztyűgyár Community Centre at Mátyás square 15. started its programmes in 2008 offering free time activities for young from the district and Budapest as well. As a multifunctional institution it is the home of many talent programs, art performances, trainings, courses and an internet cafe as well. The goals of all programs are to create a community with encouraging the local identity and connecting Magdolna District into Budapest's cultural blood circulation.